About Us

The EVAW Project conducts FREE trainings for persons working with domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking cases, including: law enforcement, prosecutors, judges, victim advocates, social workers, and all other professionals and interested community members.

Training programs are designed for criminal justice workers, but others are welcome. We model a team approach and encourage teamwork within the communities where we offer training.

If you are interested in attending a training, please contact:

Ann Beauvais, Training Coordinator:
303-271-6797 or info@evawproject.org.
