

Training Agenda

August 26, 2014

8:00am-8:15am	Check-in Morning beverage service will be provided.
8:15am-8:30am	Welcome Erin Jemison, Executive Director, CCASA Terri Livermore, SARP Coordinator, Division of Criminal Justice
8:30am-8:45am	Marketing Your SART Alexa Priddy, Director of Training & Communications, CCASA "How do we get the word out?" is a common question that most SARTs have throughout their development and growth as a team. This brief session will focus on some quick & easy marketing tools you can use in your community.
8:45am-9:00am	Forensic Compliance in Colorado: Updates and Future Directions Karen Moldovan, Director of Advocacy & Policy, CCASA Terri Livermore, SARP Coordinator, Division of Criminal Justice This presentation will provide a brief update on the work of the Forensic Compliance Team as well as future directions for Colorado.
9:00-10:15pm	Forensic Experiential Interviewing Techniques in Action: Brighton, Thornton and Wheat Ridge Police Departments Detective Shaun Coleman, Thornton PD Detective Justin Moore, Brighton PD Detective Mark Slavsky, Wheat Ridge PD This presentation will provide a general overview of Forensic Experiential Interviewing Techniques. Three police agencies will discuss how these victim centered practices are being implemented on a local level.
10:15am-10:30am	AM Break
10:30am-11:30am	A Weld County Sexual Assault Case Study Assistant District Attorney Michael Rourke, Weld County Kimberly (Corban) Weeks, Adult Diversion Officer/Sexual Assault Survivor This case presentation outlines the 2006 Ronnie "Jim" Pieros

	sexual assault case that was reported, investigated, and prosecuted in Greeley and Weld County, Colorado. Using photos, audio recordings, and video clips, a recreation of the sixteen- month process will be presented to illustrate how VRA compliance and county programs worked in cooperation to produce a successful conclusion to this case.
11:30am-12:45pm	Lunch (on your own)
12:45pm-1:45pm	Using Experts Lisa Scanga, Deputy District Attorney, First Judicial DA's Office This session will address the many ways expert witnesses improve your understanding and a jury's understanding of child and adult sexual crimes. The presenter will discuss considerations for endorsing an expert witness, how experts are helpful to prosecutors even when they are not endorsed in a case, and expert witness presentation at trial.
1:45-2:15pm	SART Case Review: Customizing the Options Michelle Wolff, 17th JD SART Coordinator Terri Livermore, SARP Coordinator, Division of Criminal Justice Alexa Priddy, Director of Training & Communications, CCASA This presentation will outline options, considerations and practical tools for conducting case discussions with your team.
2:15pm-2:30pm	PM Break
2:30pm-3:30pm	Word against Word—Prosecuting Alcohol-Facilitated Sexual Assault Adrian Van Nice, Deputy District Attorney 20th Judicial District Jessica Ladd-Webert, Director, Office of Victim Assistance, University of Colorado Boulder Alcohol facilitated sexual assault are among the most difficult cases to prosecute. This presentation seeks to give the audience tools for investigating and prosecuting these cases. Additionally, important information about victim impact and the dynamics will be presented and discussed in terms of the likely impact of those dynamics on the overall case. Case studies will be discussed.
3:30pm-4:30pm	Case Review – Critical Importance of a Complete Investigation William H. Housley, Chief of Police, Granby Police Department, Heather Stein, 14th JD District Attorney's Office, and Sheila Kesler, Advocates Building a Violence-Free Community. This workshop will profile an intimate partner sexual violence case, highlighting best practices for a successful collaboration among advocacy, law enforcement and prosecution.
4:30pm-5:00pm	Closing